Beloved Animals, Covering, and Flowering, Limited Print Run of 200

Have you ever heard of Beatrix Potter’s story about a hedgehog? Her story is called The Tale of Mrs. Tiggy-Winkle, and she published it as an illustrated book in 1905, over a hundred years ago. Mrs. Tiggy-Winkle is a hedgehog. One wintry day, a little girl named Lucie visits Mrs. Tiggy-Winkle at her home high on a hill in the clouds. Hedgehogs and songbirds like those in my paintings 15. and 16. were loved by Victorians and appear in many children’s stories. Victorian children’s stories are freely available on www.gutenberg.org.

15. Victorian Hedgehogs

16. Victorian Songbirds

17. Peluchin

My precious dog Peluchin (Fluffy) appears in painting 17. He is wearing a straw hat and ribbon around his neck. Sadly, we weren’t together long. My dad fell in love with him the moment he saw him. Peluchin lives with my parents now.

18. Covering

19. Flowering in Darkness

The two paintings in 18. and 19. are stylistically similar and brilliantly colorful. I created these paintings during a difficult time in my life, a time of considerable darkness. My difficulties eventually passed and I emerged from those dark days with new energy, new friendships, and a greater sense of value and purpose. I hope these two paintings will help you through a difficult time in your time and bring newness and joy to your life.
