 28. Stringed Dancer	The early entertainers in this series of paintings appeared to me first as vivid watercolor shapes without any particular form. As the first entertainer took shape with my paintbrush and palate, other entertainers followed, each with a distinctive face and floral motif. Each face was challenging to paint, and I am proud of all of them. But I am proudest of the jester's face and the faces of the dancers in 23, 25, and 28. My favorite painting overall is 29.   	 29. Peacock Dancer
